Board Gives

School Bond Nod

Election Probable Saturday, May 18

Canyon school board Tuesday night voted to put a $1,350,000 bond issue before the school district on May 18. The bond election will be officially called at a meeting next Monday night but the board this week decided on May 18 as the election date.

If the bond issue is approved, the funds will be used to construct a new junior high school building and to air condition Rex Reeves Elementary School.

Evaporative air conditioning for the elementary school would cost about $63,000 while refrigerated air would cost about $83,000. No decision has been made on whether to use refrigerated or evaporative air. Architect Clayton Shiver recommended evaporative cooling for the elementary school.

The balance of the bond issue would be used to construct and furnish a new junior high school building and to air condition the present industrial arts and music building.

Motion to call the bond issue was made by Bill Davis and seconded by J. O. Parker. Vote by the board was unanimous.

The new building will provide 34 teacher stations for the junior high school and will accommodate a little more than 1,000 students.

The board ratified a contract with Columbian Securities to handle arrangements for the bond issue. Bob Davis, representing that firm, met with the board Tuesday in the capacity of a financial advisor.

He told the board that an increase of about 20 cents per $100 valuation will be necessary to retire the bonds on a 19-year basis. Presently $3588 cents of the school's $1.38 levy is required to retire outstanding bonded indebtedness. Davis estimates that about 56 cents will be required if the new bond issue is approved.

He noted that the going rate on school bonds such as those

Police Chief Caldwell Quits Post

L. D. Caldwell, Canyon Police chief here since 1959, resigned Wednesday afternoon, according to City Manager Paul Davis.

Caldwell, who has purchased the Atex Fina Service Station at 710 23rd Street here, said the resignation would become effective immediately. The service station was formerly owned by Eddie Knowles.

Caldwell will be replaced by Calvin Costley, former Randall County deputy sheriff from 1960 until 1966. Costley has been with the Canyon Police Department for a little more than one year.

District Food Show Saturday

District 4-H Foods Elimination will be held Saturday at Canyon High School.

Senior division winners in the four foods groups will advance to the state contest which is held during June in connection with the 4-H State Round-Up, according to Becky Hall, home demonstration agent.

The district event will begin at 9:30 a.m. with a general assembly and briefing session for entrants. Exhibits will be arranged in the north and south halls at CHS and the home economics department will serve as headquarters for last minute preparations.

At 2 p.m., awards will be issued in an assembly in the CHS auditorium. Parents and other visiting delegates will be entertained with films and a program during the morning judging sessions.

Entered in the event from Randall County for the senior division are Judy Boehning, bread and cereal group, and Linda Hales, fruit and vegetable group.

Junior division entries from Randall County are Terry Reynolds, milk division, and Millie Hales, meat division.

Band Sells Newspapers

Subscriptions to The Canyon News will be sold by Band students of Canyon High School tonight, Thursday, in an effort to raise funds to finance a trip to the Buccaneer Band Festival in Corpus Christi next month.

Band students, in co-operation with The Canyon News, will canvass the city selling both new and renewal subscriptions to the newspaper beginning at 6 p.m. The band will receive commissions on each sale. Regular subscription rates are $5 per year.

Enroute to the Band Festival, the CHS band will perform at the HemisFair in San Antonio May 2.

The drive tonight will conclude with a social hour at the school sponsored by the Canyon Band Parents.

Redskins Wantum Heap O' Wampum

The old expression of "give it back to the Indians" may be becoming somewhat of a nightmare for the United States government.

It seems the Apache Indians are seeking payment for 14,000,000 acres of land to which they claimed ownership in 1883.

Allen McMullen, professional land appraiser from Albuquerque, N. M., visited for almost three days in the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum here last week trying to determine the price of New Mexico land in 1883.

The government, McMullen said, held a "pow wow" with the Apaches and agreed to pay the Indians for the land but McMullen must first determine the going rate for such property in 1883.

The land in question, located north of Fort Sumner and east of Albuquerque, sold in 1883 from 50 cents to $3 per acre. McMullen was able to determine the land prices through a survey of the Munsen papers and various copies of the Panhandle Plains Historical Society Review.

"He thought he got some good information here," McClure said, explaining that the material he was seeking was not available at either the museum in 1883.

Yearbook Takes First

"Soaring Wings", Canyon High School's student yearbook, won a first place rating in class B competition at a Panhandle High School Press Association meeting at West Texas State University Wednesday.

"Wings" took the first place, followed by a second for the Tulsa High yearbook and a third for Brownfield High.

Mrs. Royal Brantley is sponsor of the CHS publication. In other Canyon competition Ryckie Sargee of CHS was awarded an honorable mention in sports story competition.

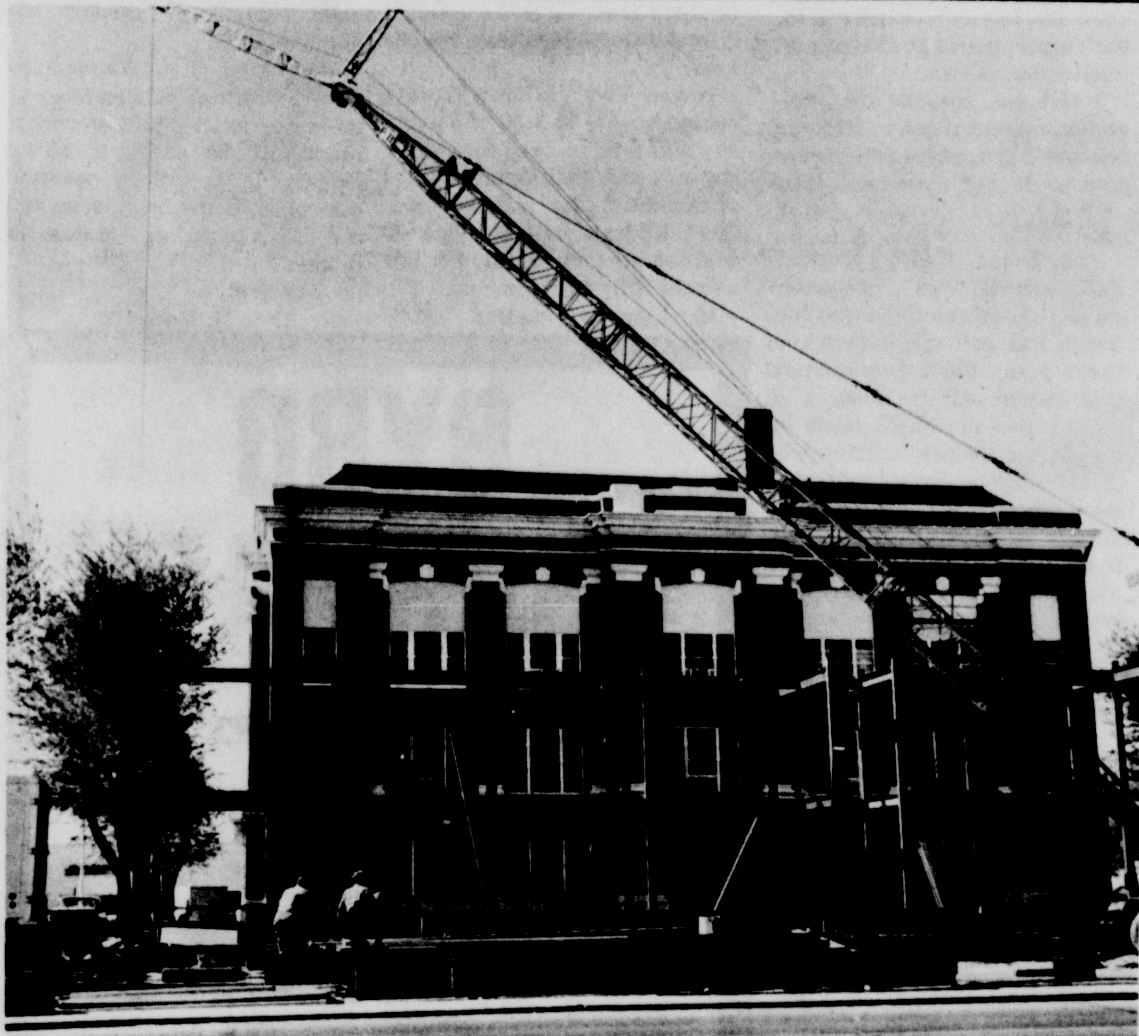

Museum Has Fire

A fire, which was discovered Wednesday at 8 a.m. in the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum, destroyed an old English crossbow and sword and possibly other antique weapons.

The fire, which Boone McClure, museum director, said probably started from a cigarette left in the basement Tuesday at 5 p.m., burned the crossbow, one work table and a wall.

Smoke, which spread throughout the museum early Wednesday, was piped from the building by a fan used by the Canyon Fire Department.

McClure said no estimate of damages could be made at this time.

Steel work is under way on the new court house annex here in Canyon. This huge crane swings the steel girders into position and they are bolted in place. The new annex is to be a two-story structure with a foundation to support two additional stories if they are ever needed.

Tax Hike Confronting Randall County Folks

Contemplating a tax increase, Randall County commissioners Monday delayed until next week the fixing of the tax rate for the county.

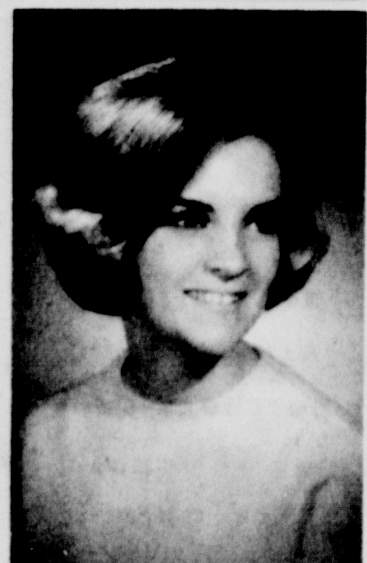

The tax raise probably will come in the form of an increase in the percentage of actual valuation to be used for the purpose of levying taxes.

Zoning Meet Wednesday

Marvin Springer, urban planning consultant of Dallas, will meet here Wednesday with members of the City and Zoning commissions.

The meeting, scheduled for 3 p.m. in the American Legion Building, will concern Springer's proposals for new zoning standards for Canyon. Also to be presented by the urban planning consultant will be a proposed map designating various zones within the Canyon city limits.

Springer has been preparing the zoning standards and new subdivision regulations which will be included in a comprehensive master plan for Canyon. An earlier meeting with Springer was cancelled because final preparations on the zoning map had not been completed.

CYNTHIA TAYLOR

Miss Taylor Is Elected

Cynthia Taylor has been elected to serve as president of the Texas Beta chapter of Pi Beta Phi, national sorority on the campus of Southern Methodist University, for the school year 1968-69.

Miss Taylor, an art major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Taylor of Canyon. She graduated from Canyon High School in 1965.

Last summer, Miss Taylor served as a national Panhellenic delegate to Pi Beta Phi national centennial convention in Chicago. Established in 1867 at Monmouth College in Illinois, Pi Beta Phi sorority now has active chapters on a majority of university campuses.

At present taxes are assessed on 12 1/2 percent of actual valuation.

Taxes have been lowered by the county twice since 1960. In 1962, the percentage of actual valuation used for taxing purposes was lowered from 20 percent to 15 percent and in 1964 from 15 to 12 1/2 percent.

The present Randall County tax rate is $1.45 per $100 taxable valuation.

Commissioners delayed action a week to permit a conference with auditors.

In a split vote, commissioners

Absentee Voting Is Under Way

Absentee voting for the May primaries began Monday at the county clerk's office in the court house in Canyon and at the court house annex at 3806 Bowie in South Amarillo.

County Clerk Leroy Hutton said absentee voting may continue through April 30.

Three ballots were cast Monday at the annex while no one voted at the court house. Hutton said 28 ballots have been mailed to Randall county citizens temporarily out of the county. These were mailed mostly to servicemen.

Hutton announced that the county clerk's office in the court house and at the annex in Amarillo will be open every day, Monday through Friday, from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 8 o'clock Saturday, April 27 to accommodate absentee voters.

Awards Event For CHS Choir

Awards banquet for Canyon High School choir students will be held Saturday at 7:30 p.m. in the east cafeteria at West Texas State University.

"Bugalo Down Broadway" will be the theme for the banquet as Ric Wilson, choir president, serves as master of ceremonies.

Highlight of the awards will be the presentation of Choir King and Queen. Vying for the titles are Ric Wilson, Mike Shapley and Tony Gibson, (King contest) and Karla Jordan, Melody Jones, Cathy Gerald, Beverly Brown and Shelley Taylor, (Queen contest). Winners will be selected by choir student vote.

Other awards slated are the National School Choral Award to the outstanding senior choir member. Nominees are Mary Starnes and Ric Wilson. Awards will also be presented for outstanding solo and outstanding ensemble group. Vying for the solo award are Alicia Boone and Mary Starnes, nominated for the ensemble award are the sophomore boys quartet and the Madrigal Singers.

Program entertainment will be provided by Freddy Snow and Dorothy McDonald, students from Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, New Mexico.

Miss Linda Adams is choir director.

Special guests will include members of the school board and school administration along with invited guests from the community. The evening will conclude with a prom.

Perdue, former assistant district attorney for Dallas County, came to Amarillo as assistant city attorney from Irving where he was a tax appraiser from 1955-1962 and a former city councilman. He was later in private law practice.

He received a BBA degree in marketing in 1960 from North Texas State in Denton and another degree from Southern Methodist School of Law in 1964.

A member of the State Bar Association of Texas and the Amarillo Bar Association, Perdue is married to a registered nurse.

In other action, swearing-in ceremonies for Mayor Paul Lindsey and Commissioners H. R. Fulton, Jr. and Jim Christopher were conducted.

Lindsey and Fulton were unopposed in their bid for reelection and Christopher, a local realtor, defeated incumbent George Ritter for place three on the council.

Fulton was mayor pro-tem during his last term as commissioner, but no replacement for the position was named Monday.

It was announced that the opening of bids for paving will be conducted at 2 p.m. Monday in the City Hall Annex.

Funds for a large amount of paving in Canyon were recently approved by voters in a bond issue.

City Engineer Bill McMorries of Amarillo was scheduled Monday to discuss what streets needed paving in Canyon, but no mention of the matter was made Monday.

His comment is so highly intelligent (within the framework of his naivete) that I am sorry that my years of experience tell me that it is also pitifully callow.

Don Miller Jones

by Troy Martin
FROM THE CANYON RIM

I read an article this week by Archie Moore, a St. Louis Negro who became light heavyweight champion of the world. It was refreshing. Here's a part of it.

"I was born in a ghetto, but I refused to stay there," wrote Moore. "I am a Negro and proud to be one. I am also an American and I'm proud of that."

"The young people of today think they have a hard lot. They should have been around in the '30s when I was coming up in St. Louis. We had no way to go, but a lot of us made it."

"I became light heavyweight champion of the world. A neighbor kid down the block, Clark Terry, became one of the most famous jazz musicians in the world. There were doctors, lawyers and chiefs who came out of that ghetto. One of the top policemen in St. Louis came from our neighborhood."

"We made it because we had a goal and we were willing to work for it. Don't talk to me about your guaranteed national income. Any fool knows that this is insanity. Do we bring those who worked to get ahead down to the level of those who never gave a damn? The world owes NOBODY---black or white---a living. God helps the man who helps himself."

Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, speaking in a Willson lecture on the West Texas State University campus Tuesday, had this to say.

"There are people who would rather march than study. There are conditions under which it is right to march but that is not the way scholarship is developed. You cannot learn physics except in laboratory."

US News & World Report estimates that as few as two percent of the Negro population in cities recently torn by riots actually participated in violence.

The other 98 percent, many of them homeless, jobless and ruined by the hoodlums allowed to have a heyday, prayed for enforcement of the law and restoration of order.

Our biggest crime against the Negro in this part of the country is the failure of the power structure to strictly enforce the law in predominantly Negro areas.

I've seen authorities wink at violations in the Negro section of Amarillo with a "What can you expect?" attitude. When I was covering the police beat for The Globe-News in Amarillo almost 20 years ago I saw a delegation of Negro civic leaders come to authorities with a plea for stricter law enforcement in the Negro section of town.

The white community paid little attention when a Negro committed a crime of violence against another Negro. At Stinnett, in Hutchinson County, I once saw a grown man draw a two-year suspended sentence after pleading guilty to the rape of a 13-year-old Negro girl. I'm saying that our hands are not clean because we haven't exactly taught the Negro community a respect for law and order. Cities with Negro sections can do more for its black citizens by strict enforcement of the law in those sections than by any other method.

Make their streets safe for those who want to build. Make their streets almighty unsafe for the looters, burners and hoodlums.

Negro parents can then teach their children that the law is the friend of those who live within it. Within the circle of its protection a people can build for the future.

Without law there is little hope for the future of any of this country's citizens---white or black.

I understand that the instance of bank robbery is up drastically from previous years.

President Bill Adams and Directors Jack Jennings and Jack Taylor of First National Bank have just returned from a conference in Houston on bank robbery.

The spirit of Bonnie and Clyde lives on!

My hand was called on my statement that Bobby Kennedy has said he would be willing to give his blood to the Viet Cong communists. I was asked to state the time and place.

Robert Kennedy, actively seeking the Democratic nomination for President of the United States, made the statement Nov. 5, 1965 in a speech on the campus of the University of California.

I got my information from a book by William V. Shannon entitled, "The Heir Apparent Robert Kennedy and the Struggle for Power."

Preston Smith, candidate for governor, was quoted in a Lubbock paper last week as having said he would support Bobby Kennedy if Kennedy is the Democratic nominee for President.

I talked to the lieutenant governor last Thursday. He declared that he made no such statement. He said he told an interviewer, "I will cross that bridge when I come to it."

Don Yarborough, another candidate for governor, visiting in my office Tuesday made an unqualified statement that he would support the Democratic nominee for President no matter who he happens to be.

Yarborough balked at our efforts to get him to say outright whether he would support Kennedy but I suppose that if Kennedy is the nominee Yarborough will support him.

I favor Smith for governor largely because he is a man of experience. You can't overlook his 18 years in state government and we undoubtedly will need a strong, experienced man as governor during the next two years.

Letters To Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

You have editorialized at length for a new Jr high building, and that's fine--you're privileged and in fact obligated to express his or her opinion at the polls. Repeatedly encourage them to believe their vote "does count". Something is wrong in a community when less than 4 percent of the voters turn out for an election. And when many of those who failed to vote forgot or didn't know an election was being held, the finger points to their communication media.

I feel you possess the principles to meet these challenges headon; do you possess the freedom to do so? We shall see.

L. A. Smith
(Ed. Note: Conway Kuykendall, school tax assessor-collector, informs me that Mr. Smith has paid $3.50 in school taxes since 1964. I understand that there will be about a 20 cent raise in school taxes as a result of the new building program. If Mr. Smith pays over the next four years as records reflect he has paid over the past four the new improvements should cost him about 14 cents a year.)

April 15, 1968
To The Editor:
This letter is in response to the headline article of April 11, 1968 and specifically in regards to air conditioning the elementary school. Quote "Dr. Golden pointed out the advantages of air conditioning. He said students learn about 20 percent faster in such buildings."

This is another of our tricky statements that we so commonly hear in our advertisements. Certainly we are not to believe that air conditioning the elementary school will give a 20% learning gain for the whole term. I will say that the 20% figure is certainly fair for the worst part of one of our disagreeable hot days.

Now let us be practical and study this situation. The first and last months of the school term would generally be the ones involved in cooling of the air. Of these days approximately one half are agreeable days. This leaves about 20 school days. In this country of cool nights a building like this will be quite comfortable till noon or with daylight saving time till about one P.M. This leaves 1/3 of the school day times 20 days or approximately 7 days of real benefit through cooling for the entire term. Using the 20% figure of increased learning there would be a total gain of less than one percent.

Negatively, children from a cooled school at 3:30 on a warm day will tend to head for the TV and any airconditioning instead of healthful play and exercise. Bus children will find the 70 degrees to their really hot bus an unhealthy fast contrast.

In our so called affluent society, we must wear short sleeves in the winter and sweaters in the summer. The elementary school is overheated in the winter. Are we now to over cool it at great expense just so that we can call ourselves an IN TOWN. I am in favor of air conditioning where it is practical and used. The offices that are used in the summer and later in the day, if not already, should be, and the school when it is used extensively through the summer.

As a father of two elementary school children and a member of the not so affluent farm economy that will be asked to share greatly in its cost, I question this part of the bond issue and the misleading statement printed.

Sincerely,
Alvin H. Kuhlman

New Jersey Resident Recalls Trenton Riots

When Mrs. Mary Jugel left her home Friday in Ewing Township, N. J. for Canyon, nearby Trenton was still in shock following a massive amount of burning and looting of business establishments.

Mrs. Jugel, mother of Mrs. Rowie Durden here, said the violence that erupted the day slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King was buried was "done and done well".

She said national guard troops were on standby alert, local law enforcement officers were policing the streets, and a curfew from 8 p.m. until 6:30 a.m. was in effect at Trenton.

Barricades halting motorists both into and from Trenton were established, she said, all to stop the violence that erupted in the city's metropolitan center.

"Many merchants were hard hit," Mrs. Jugel noted, "especially that close to Easter."

Mrs. Jugel said some small businesses were burned and looted and one of Trenton's largest furniture stores was gutted by fire.

"They (the looters) would gather arms full of clothes—clothes they couldn't even wear," she explained, noting that many of those were not teenagers but young adults.

As a result of the curfew and violence, many stores were ordered to close.

Although Mrs. Jugel left New Jersey before a final estimate of the damages could be made, she said "things will be kept quiet to not make them want to do more damage next time."

"I thank God I didn't teach there," Mrs. Jugel said of Trenton High School where mobs of students and young adults had previously been causing havoc.

"The mistake was made when we gave in to them," she said of the unruly students. "It's like raising children, you have to know when to say no."

Mrs. Jugel said the students should have been told if they damaged school property, they would be asked to leave. "No one took a stand at the Trenton High School riots," she explained.

Noting Trenton High School had about a 70-30 percent ratio of Negroes and whites, she said one-fourth of the Negroes would be a sufficient number to cause trouble.

At Trenton the school officials did not properly enforce regulations, she maintains, and were afraid to discipline the students for fear they might damage more school property.

At Antheil Demonstration School, where Mrs. Jugel helps train students for Trenton State College, each child is treated as a child, not a member of a social or ethnic group.

"We have nice and thoughtful Negro children," she explained. "Many mothers kept their youngsters at home during the trouble so they would know where they were."

Explaining that there were underprivileged students at Antheil and Trenton High, Mrs. Jugel says the "underprivileged do not always cause trouble, but most of the people who rushed out seemed to come from underprivileged areas."

"We try to be fair, but firm," she said of the Antheil school policy toward student discipline. The school has its share of underprivileged whites too, Mrs. Jugel explained.

"If you need to shoot—shoot," Mrs. Jugel said the Philadelphia chief of police told his officers. There was little violence in that city as a result of the chief's statement, she noted.

"If youngsters create vandalism, even my own, I had rather have them punished the first time than later," Mrs. Jugel declared.

Mrs. Jugel said she had hoped there would be no violence in New Jersey such as the state experienced last summer.

Summing up how tense the situation was in Trenton, Mrs. Jugel said: "If you went to Trenton, you better have a good reason for being there."

Explaining that there were underprivileged students at Antheil and Trenton High, Mrs. Jugel says the "underprivileged do not always cause trouble, but most of the people who rushed out seemed to come from underprivileged areas."

"We try to be fair, but firm," she said of the Antheil school policy toward student discipline. The school has its share of underprivileged whites too, Mrs. Jugel explained.

"If you need to shoot—shoot," Mrs. Jugel said the Philadelphia chief of police told his officers. There was little violence in that city as a result of the chief's statement, she noted.

"If youngsters create vandalism, even my own, I had rather have them punished the first time than later," Mrs. Jugel declared.

Mrs. Jugel said she had hoped there would be no violence in New Jersey such as the state experienced last summer.

Summing up how tense the situation was in Trenton, Mrs. Jugel said: "If you went to Trenton, you better have a good reason for being there."

Large Crowd For Services

An estimated audience of 600 local residents attended Easter Sunrise Services Sunday in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

The Rev. Baldwin J. Stribbling, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, gave the sunrise address.

The sunrise program included a sound and light production of the "Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ", recording of the "Hallelujah Chorus" by the London Philharmonic, and special music by the Canyon High School Madrigal Singers.

An estimated crowd of 4,000 were at Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge Sunday, most of them using picnic facilities and sightseeing. Last year about 14,000 were at the lake Easter Sunday.

Jerry Mullican, superintendent at Palo Duro Canyon State Park, estimated about 10,000 people were sightseeing and using picnic areas Sunday and some 700 people from 27 states signed the register at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum.

No major accidents were reported by local law enforcement officers for the Easter holidays.

"MOST HAPPY FELLA" cast members at West Texas State University who will be performing later this month include left, Ella Joe Cansler, Royal Brantley and Sharon M. Kerbel. Prologue for "Most Happy Fella" is in a San Francisco restaurant, and quickly shifts to the Tony Esposito (Brantley) farm in Napa, Calif.

'Most Happy Fella' Is Spring Musical

Royal Brantley and Joe Ella Cansler will sing the lead roles in "The Most Happy Fella," a musical to be staged in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State University with the opening performance Wednesday evening at 8:15 p.m.

Brantley, associate professor of music at WTSU, last November directed the production of Giacomo Puccini's "La Boheme" by the WTSU Opera Workshop. Miss Cansler, a Canyon senior, sang the role of Mimì in Puccini's tale of artists and habits of the Latin Quarter in Paris.

In "Most Happy Fella" Brantley is cast as Tony Esposito, an immigrant grape grower in California. Miss Cansler sings the part of Rosabella, Esposito's mail-order bride.

Admission is $3 for adults and $2 for public school students and children. WT students will be admitted free with their activity cards, but must reserve seating space before the performances. Reserve seats are advised.

The box office in the Fine Arts Building on campus is open each day from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. and will remain open each performance night until curtain time.

Show dates include April 24, 25, 26, and 27. The show will also be presented April 30, May 1, 2, 3, and 4.

The show, which is based on

Sidney Howard's play "They Knew What They Wanted", is produced by the WTSU Opera Workshop. Also working on the musical are the fine arts departments of music, speech and art at the university.

The production staff will include William A. Moore, stage director; Margaret E. Moore, acting coach; Rowie Durden, musical director; Neil Hess, choreographer; Thomas Hoffman, technical director; Elsa Porter, assistant musical director; Charlotte Brantley, designer.

Administrative consultants will be Dr. John Green, chairman of the department of music; Dr. Crannell Tolliver, chairman of the department of speech; and Dr. Emilio Caballero, chairman of the department of art.

Cast, in addition to Brantley and Miss Cansler, are John Brandon as Joe, the wandering, handsome foreman of the farm; Lyn Sharman as Marie Esposito, the grape farmer's sister; Sharon Kerbel as Cleo, the waitress and an old friend of Rosabella; Jerry McCoy as Herman, a vineyard worker on the grape farm; Steve Hunter as Pasquale, Tony's chief servant; Steve Hilton and Harold Orr as Ciccio and Giuseppe, Italian servants; and Richard King as Doc, a typical country doctor.

Others are Terry Trice as the postman; Pat Lewis, Ralph Jackson and Kenneth Senter as the male quartet of vineyard workers; Raymond Root as the Padre, rural priest; Randy Carver as the cashier; Frank Latson as the city boy; Judy Balo as the country girl; and the children, Royal R. Brantley and Danny Coker.

Vineyard workers and townspeople include Camille Hess, Becky Wilkerson, Candy Collier, Debbie Cazzell, Julie Brantley, Judy Balo, Earleen Sutton, Jean Davis, Tanya Wilhelm, Susan Shropshire, Stephen Hunter, Frank Latson, Steve Hilton, Harold Orr, Kenneth Eastman, John Sharman and Donald Munsell.

Rezoning Approved

The rezoning of a strip of land in Hunsley Hills from residential to retail was approved at a special meeting of Canyon City Commissioners April 10.

The rezoning action, requested by Tom Rosé to allow him to construct a clubhouse facility, had previously been sanctioned by members of the City Zoning Commission. Both city zoners and commissioners conducted public hearings.

Rosé is co-owner of the Hunsley Hills Golf Club. In other business, an increase of $50 per month was added to City Manager Paul Davis automobile allowance. Davis was previously receiving $100 monthly for car expenditures.

These boys are Douglas Rivers, 15, left, and his brother, Tommy, 13, with A. L. Gatewood, supervisor for Buckner's Baptist Children's Home of Lubbock. Gatewood and several boys from the home were guests of the Canyon Baptist Brotherhood Monday night at First Baptist Church. Gatewood spoke before the group giving information on the home which has 68 children, boys and girls, on campus at Lubbock.

DR. ELTON TRUEBLOOD, right, minister of the Friends Church, is conducting the annual Willson Lectures at West Texas State University this week. Discussing the lecture program with Dr. Trueblood is the Rev. Charles Pederson, director of the Episcopal University Center. The lecture series, which began Monday, will close Friday.

Willson Lectures Will Close Friday

Dr. D. Elton Trueblood, nationally known minister of the Friends Church, will close the annual Willson Lecture Series at West Texas State University Friday.

The general theme of the series, which began Monday morning, is "Religion and the Educated Man."

The series was scheduled at 10 a.m. daily in the Fine Arts Auditorium on the campus.

The lectures are sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Willson of Floydada. The Willsons have sponsored the WTSU series and similar lectures in several Texas colleges for 20 years.

Classes are not dismissed for the series here. The organized activities of the former Religious Emphasis Week, conducted by various church centers adjacent to the campus, were not co-ordinated as in the past. However, individual church center programs may be conducted according to discretion of the centers.

Trueblood, president of Yokefellow Associates, has held professorships at Haverford, Harvard, Stanford and Guilford. He has just retired from Earlham College where he was professor of philosophy.

More than a dozen of his books are available at the University Bookstore here.

WHITTENBURG UNDERSTANDS... ELECT HIM GOVERNOR
Ed. By: Ade. Texas for Whittenburg, Robert Mahony, Ch.

proposed by the Canyon School System is 4.40 percent this week.
Present taxable valuation in the school district is $51,000,000 and the new issue would place bonded indebtedness of the district at about 6.98 percent of that figure. The legal limit is 10 percent. Present indebtedness of the district is $2,268,000.

The school district lost some $2,000,000 from the valuation during the past year because of Amendment I to the state constitution regarding farm land. The amendment stipulates that certain farm land, even though in urban areas, will be taxed at the going rate for farm land regardless of actual market value.
School Supt. Jerry Jacobs told the board that the district is having a valuation increase of about $750,000 a year.
Polling places for the bond election will be American Legion Hall in Canyon and Gene Howe Elementary School in South Amarillo. Aubrey Crossland has been named election judge for the Canyon polling place while Bill Harp will be election judge at Gene Howe.

Voting
fices and issues within the county.
The new law preserves the voting rights which existed under the old law but the procedure for voting has been changed. Until now, a person entitled to vote on the basis of six months residence in a district voted on election day at a regular polling place for the voting precinct of his new residence.
Under the new law, no one who has resided in the county less than six months may vote at a regular polling place. All voting by such persons must be done through the county clerk's office.
The voter must appear in person at the clerk's office between the 20th and 4th day preceding the election unless he is unable to appear because of sickness of physical disability or unless he is absent from the county during the period. Sick or disabled voters and those temporarily absent from the county may obtain a ballot by mail.
Hutton said persons living in Amarillo voting precincts who registered in the county of their former residence must have their registration transferred through the tax assessor-collector's office before they vote. Persons living in Canyon and rural voting precincts are not required to transfer their registration but they should have their voter registration certificate with them when they apply for a ballot in the county clerk's office.
However, if a voter has lost his certificate, he will be permitted to vote after making an affidavit of that fact.
Hutton warned that voters living in Amarillo who have moved from one voting precinct to another within the county must also have their registration transferred through the tax assessor-collector's office by April 29 in order to vote in the May 4 primaries. They will vote on election day at the regular polling place for the voting precinct of their residence.
Voters who registered in some other county and moved into Randall County before Nov. 4 will also vote a full ballot at the regular polling place on election day but they also must have their registration transferred by April 29 if they live in an Amarillo precinct.

Tax
ment of Brown because Brown was a candidate for county judge at the time and the commissioner from Umbarger contended that appointing him to the office was showing favoritism. Brown is running on the Democratic ticket.
Republican candidate for county judge, C. N. Cosby, opposed both the appointment of Brown and the salary raise for the office of county judge.
Canyon and Amarillo newspapers have editorially supported the salary raise.
In other action Monday, commissioners accepted a preliminary plat of McCormick Estates, a building development north of Canyon.
The court refused to accept a plat of Holiday South.
Bids on supplies for the Randall County tax assessor-collector's office were accepted. The court voted to pay Bennett Company $1,148.25 for tax receipts and $499.75 for 25,000 window envelopes on 24-pound stock.
Commissioners agreed to forego state reimbursement of $235 on a drainage easement for which the county has been unable to secure a release. The easement is on Loop 335.
The court canvassed the recent county school trustee election and declared J. D. Barker, Lynn Bennett and Charles Beckman winners. All three were incumbents. All ran unopposed. Holdover members of the board are E. R. Cleavinger and R. B. Gist, Jr.

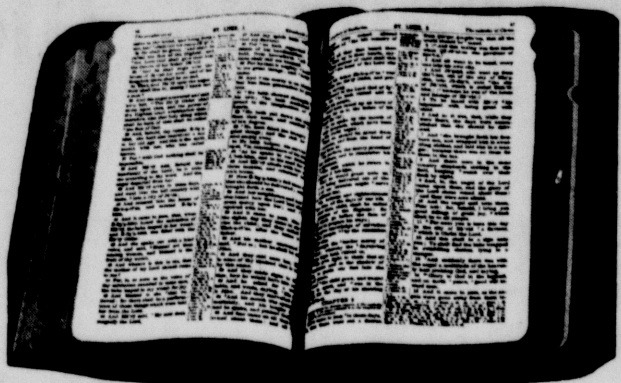

Redskins
in Albuquerque or Santa Fe. Munsen, who owned the XIT Ranch at one time and also had possession of some ten million acres, kept records of land sale transactions--many of them dating back to the days of the old Spanish grants.
McMullen, who conferred with W. A. Kelleher, attorney and historian from Albuquerque, and J. Evetts Haley here, said he would talk later with O. H. Finch of Dalhart, who has owned ranches in the Texas Panhandle for many years. Kelleher was a speaker here several years ago at a meeting of the historical society.
The use of the museum files here for land grant information began 15 years ago, McClure said, when the Cheyenne Indians were suing the federal government for $51 million dollars. Tommy Atkins, an Indian who was representing the Cheyennes, first came to the museum seeking information concerning land grants in Oklahoma. His visit was followed by one from a federal government investigator who wanted to know what Atkins found.

"Atkins returned later with his wife to do some more checking on the land grant titles," McClure said. "After he left, another federal man came wanting to know if the first federal man or Atkins had missed anything."
The Indians eventually won their suit for the Oklahoma lands.
The Kiowa Indians instigated a suit for Oklahoma lands also, but part of their claim, McClure said, was for land already in question in the Cheyenne suit.
McMullen said he would furnish the museum with a record of his findings after all the research had been completed.
"Maybe," McClure laughed, "this will be something the next tribe of Indians can use when they sue the federal government."

Marriage Ceremony For Miss Owen-Barnett

Double ring marriage vows uniting Miss Wanda Gail Owen and David Kirk Barnett were solemnized at the First Baptist Church of Canyon Friday evening with Dr. Strauss Atkinson, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Owen of Canyon. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Barnett of Welda, Kansas.

A white aisle cloth directed attention of the decorations into a panorama of pleated satin draperies on the choir railing accented with candleabra and the traditional white wedding tapers. An archway of greenery and tapers flanked with large white urns of white gladioli completed the spring arrangement.

Mary Ann Wheelock served as organist and the bride's brother, Hal Owen, sang "One Hand, One Heart" by Bernstein and Soundheim and "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length formal wedding gown of Angel skin peau de soie designed with a Sabrina neckline, empire waistline and long pointed sleeves. Designed of Spanish lace, the sleeves were accented with matching lace which was used to complement the front of the wedding gown. A detachable wattleau train complemented the wedding gown. The train also featured inserts of Spanish lace. Her veil of imported illusion was held to a handmade pearl crown and she carried a cascade arrangement of cymbidium orchids and feathered carnations atop a white Bible.

The bride's honor attendants carried nosegays of yellow chrysanthemums and carnations to complement their floor-length yellow gowns. The sleeves were bordered with Chantilly lace and a floor length train was an accent point for each gown.

Mrs. Michael H. Kendrick served as matron of honor. The bride's sister, Renee Owen, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Diana Williams of Canyon, Jolene Carter and Sandra Carter, sisters of the bride from Tulsa. Candlelighters were Julie Roach of Amarillo and Matt Barnett, brother of the bridegroom, from Welda, Kansas.

The bridegroom's brother, John H. Barnett of Seattle, Washington, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jay Pivnick of West Orange, New Jersey, Don Keim of Plano, Texas, Gene Blair of Denver, Colorado and Mike Tilger of Canyon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Owen wore a beige lace dress with bone accessories and complemented with a corsage of green cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother selected a pale aqua linen dress with white orchid corsage and white accessories.

Fellowship Hall was the site for the wedding reception. Guests were registered by Sally Pumphrey of Amarillo.

The reception table, covered with an imported Belgian cutwork cloth, was accented with a silver punch service, silver candelabra, and a spring bouquet accented with yellow carnations. The four-tiered wedding cake completed the table setting.

Presiding at the reception table were Lynn Gill and Judy Batenhorst. Members of the houseparty included the bride's aunts, Mrs. G. L. Davis, Mrs. W. D. Owen, and Mrs. R. V. Pennington all of Canyon, Mrs. Jewel Brown and Mrs. Jesse Roach, both of Amarillo, and Mrs. Ocie Chism of Canyon, a close friend. Also in the houseparty were Misses Celine Chism, Pat Tilger, Joyce Louder, Ginger Crump, Linda Sue Grabbe and Marian Batenhorst.

For a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the bride changed to a pale yellow suit with bone accessories and complemented the ensemble with a white cymbidium orchid.

The couple will make their home at 2105 B Second Avenue, Canyon.

A graduate of Canyon High School, the bride is a junior at West Texas State University where she is active in Delta Zeta social sorority.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Davis of Henrietta. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cogburn of Canyon.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown which she styled and designed. The princess style gown of white peau de soie was accented with lace motifs in a chosen design on the skirt. The gown featured long fitted lace sleeves with scallops at the wrist and a lace train extending from the back neckline. The train was chapel length accented with cutaway motifs. Her headpiece was a Dior bow accented with daisies and holding a fingertip veil of French illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of daisies centered with an orchid and entwined with English ivy. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, borrowed from her sister-in-law.

COOK OF THE WEEK Shares Favorite Recipes

Mrs. R. M. Cole has been selected as the Homemaker of the Week to share recipes with our readers this week.

Mrs. Cole, the former Alice Hunt, shares recipes for Lemon Fluff Cake, Frozen Fruit Punch and Pineapple-Cheese Salad.

Reared near Sulphur Springs, Texas, Mrs. Cole's mother Berta Hunt still lives there. A brother, Dewey Hunt, and sister, Lois Sanderson, both live in Canyon. Mrs. Cole's other brother, Frank Hunt, resides at Chillicothe and sister, Lucille Harris, lives at Saltillo.

Mrs. Cole attended Saltillo High School and on November 25, 1928 was married to her husband, who is a native of Ben Wheeler, Texas, located near Tyler in VanZant County. His parents are deceased but two brothers, Hubbard and Myron, still live near Ben Wheeler and a sister, Roma Harrison, resides in Fair Oaks, California.

The Coles came to Canyon in 1961. He is maintenance supervisor over the campus grounds at West Texas State University. She is a representative for Avon Cosmetics in the Canyon area.

Members of the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Cole is a nursery superintendent for the toddler department and her husband teaches a men's Sunday School class. He is a retired Baptist minister having served Baptist churches in Texas for 25 years. His last church, before coming here, was the Salem Baptist Church near Vigo Park, which has now disbanded.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cole are football fans and enjoy the games during the fall.

They have three children, Melba Sue Owens of Paducah, Wayne Cole of Amarillo and Jane Bagwell of Canyon. They also have 14 grandchildren.

Along with other activities, Mrs. Cole says that one of her favorite hobbies is cooking. She shares the following recipes:

PINEAPPLE-CHEESE SALAD
1 pkg. lime jello
1 small can crushed pineapple
1 small can evaporated milk
1 cup shredded cheese
1/2 cup nuts, chopped
Dissolve jello as directed. Chill until slightly thick. Chill milk very cold and whip until thick. Add to jello mixture and fold together. Add pineapple, cheese and nuts. Chill in mold until set.

FROZEN FRUIT PUNCH
3 oranges
3 lemons
3 bananas
1 apple, peeled and ground
10 maraschino cherries
2 lbs. sugar
citric acid
Peel and grind fruits. Add sugar and cherries. Place in freezer. When ready to serve place frozen fruit in bowl and cover with two bottles of ginger ale or three king size cokes. Serve chilled.

LEMON FLUFF CAKE
2 cups cake flour, sifted
1 cup sugar
3 tsp. baking powder
3/4 tsp. salt
3 egg whites
1/4 cup sugar
1 cup milk
1 tsp. lemon extract or vanilla
1/2 cup shortening, soft
Sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt together. Beat egg whites until stiff but still moist (about one minute at high speed on electric mixer). Add sugar to beaten egg whites and blend. Mix milk, lemon extract or vanilla and shortening together with the sifted dry ingredients. Beat at moderate speed for about two minutes. Add beaten egg whites and beat for another 30 seconds. Pour batter into greased eight-inch pans. Bake at 375 degrees for about 25 minutes. Remove from pan and cool. Fill with lemon

RECIPES FOR Pineapple-Cheese Salad and Lemon Fluff Cake are shared with our readers this week by Mrs. R. M. Cole of 2108 First Avenue. Mrs. Cole also gives a recipe for Frozen Fruit Punch.

Will Attend Water Meet

Three members of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce will be attending a meeting to discuss the possibility of obtaining water from the Missouri River near the Nebraska-South Dakota boundary.

Those attending the meeting in Lamar, Colo. Friday will be JoZach Byrd, chairman of the COC agriculture committee; John Brazzil, Randall County agent and committee member; Roland Black, COC manager; and Donald F. Lloyd, Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office manager here.

The diversion plan would deliver an estimated 13 million acre feet of water annually.

As proposed by the engineering firm of R. W. Beck and Associates of Denver, Colo., the water would be lifted through a series of reservoirs and pumping installations to a point near Alliance, Neb. A gravity flow canal would then distribute water to potentially highly productive land in the states of Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas.

Paul Cunningham, supervising engineer of the Beck firm, will conduct the meeting of citizens in the five states.

Cunningham was in Canyon recently to discuss the water proposal with members of the local Rotary Club.

Announcing Chevrolet's new Torque-Drive.

Nobody else offers anything like it at the price.

Torque-Drive does away with the clutch pedal. Most of the shifting, too. And for the most economy, it's available exclusively on all Camaro sixes and Chevy II

Nova 4- and 6-cylinder models.

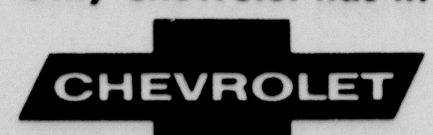

Lock how simple it is. You accelerate in 1st; then shift to Hi for cruising. That's all.

If you like, you can even start in Hi. And accelerate from standstill to cruising speed. It's just a little slower that way.

The shift lever is conveniently located on the steering column, and there's a selector quadrant with easy-to-read indications: Park-R-N-Hi-1st. Only your Chevrolet dealer has it—clutchless driving at only $68.65.

NEW! For clean Sorghum... spray weeds when you see them!
with BANVEL®

HERBICIDE

Velsicol announces Banvel herbicide for control of all hard-to-kill weeds of major importance in grain sorghum. This includes carelessweed (pigweed), sunflower, lambs-quarter, purslane, morning glory and other annual broadleaf weeds. Banvel herbicide is applied post-emergence, so there are no wasted sprays in years when rain is scarce and weeds are not a problem. With Banvel you see your weed problem and then spray—all in plenty of time to give young sorghum plants plenty of opportunity to grow.

Banvel is sprayed onto weed leaves and translocates to the roots... for new, total control of weeds. Just apply Banvel between the 10th and 25th day after emergence of grain sorghum (approximately 4 to 12 inches tall).

Banvel is not dependent on soil moisture for its effectiveness, so its results are dependable. And it's a liquid that won't clog your sprayers; nor does Banvel need constant agitation.

Banvel increases yields. It's excellent for use on grain sorghum, wheat, barley, oats and field corn. Order Banvel herbicide to get full potential from your valuable, high-yielding sorghum seed.

See your dealer today. You'll be glad you did!
